On TALE-BEARING.

A Man of an ill Tongue is dangerous in a Town, and he that is raſh in his Talk ſhall be hated. POPE.

THERE are ſome People in the World of ſuch a particular Turn and Diſpoſition of Mind, That nothing affords them greater Pleaſure than an Opportunity to revile and traduce their Neighbours. Every Thing they hear of them, if to their Prejudice, gives them the moſt conſummate Satisfaction, and every Method is employed to ſpread it abroad in the World, accompanied with all the aggravating Circumſtances in the Power of Imagination to invent. Such People as theſe are delighted alone with the Spots and Blemiſhes in a Character; they have Eyes for nothing of a different Signification; their principal Happineſs is centered in Detraction, and their whole Time and Attention employed in finding Means for the Exerciſe of it.

Nothing wounds ſo deep as a malicious Tongue; and what is very ſingular in this Diſpoſition, is, that after they have enlarged upon a Story, and thrown together as many Circumſtances to the Prejudice of the Perſons they ſpeak of as they poſſibly can, they add, that they are extremely ſorry ſuch Things ſhould have happened,—they always had a better Opinion of them,—and believe them ſtill to be of better Principles than the World imagine they are. Theſe qualifying Expreſſions, thrown in at the Bottom of an Accuſation, only render it the more poignant. However in ſome Reſpects, they anſwer the Narrator's Purpoſe, which is to convince us, he has no Ill-will or Malice againſt the Parties accuſed: This may do with ſome Perſons, but with thoſe who can ſee an Inch beyond their Noſes, and who accuſtom themſelves to examine Matters to the Bottom, they paſs but as ſo many Marks of Envy and Detraction.

I have known frequent Inſtances where this Diſpoſition has been carried much further to the Injury of others than I have deſcribed it, where the Parties have profeſſed a Friendſhip, and one of them with no other View than to have Opportunities to dive into the Secrets of the other, the better to practice the Spirit of Detraction againſt him. What can ſuch a Man as this be termed, but an Enemy of the firſt Magnitude, an Aſſaſſin in the Dark, as Sir William Draper called Junius, and one who richly deſerves to be branded with Ignominy and Reproach, by every Friend to Truth and Honeſty?

When People make Uſe of their inventive Faculties for the Benefit of Mankind, they become a public Good, and merit Encouragement and Protection; but ſurely this cannot be ſaid of thoſe who exerciſe them to a contrary Purpoſe, who make Uſe of them to the Injury of Individuals, and are never more happy than when inſtrumental to the Deſtruction of an innocent Character.

The telling a plain Matter of Fact, affords no Satisfaction to the Perſons I am ſpeaking of; they muſt be allowed a little Garniture, the probable and perhaps muſt be ſubjoined to illuſtrate and add Dignity to the Relation. Theſe paſs with the next Relator as Parts of the ſame Story: and by the Addition of more to the ſame Purpoſe, a very conciſe Tale is extended to a very long Hiſtory, and the real Matter of Fact, that gave Riſe to the Report, is loſt in the rhetorical Fictions that ſurround it.

Sir Henry Wootton has been very jocular upon this Subject, and defined "an Ambaſſador to be a Man of Virtue, ſent Abroad to tell Lies for the Advantage of his Country; and a News-Monger, a Man without Honour or Virtue, who keeps at Home and invents Lies againſt others for his own Amuſement." Very few Talents are neceſſary to render a Man complete in this Particular,—a quick Invention,—a ready Utterance,—and a Heart callous to the Admonitions of Pity, are among the Number of the moſt requiſite. If he can boaſt of theſe, he may commence a Tale-bearer as ſoon as he pleaſes. Other Qualifications, ſuch as a Tongue capable of uttering the greateſt Falſhoods without a Bluſh,—to ſtand by and ſupport a fallacious Argument,—to contradict To-day what was affirmed for a Truth Yeſterday,—will by Practice ſoon grow familiar; Habit will ſtrengthen Inclination, and Inclination thus aſſiſted, will be able to execute whatever the Imagination can ſuggeſt.

It is curious to behold the Situation of one of theſe News-Mongers, when he has any Thing new to relate; he runs from Houſe to Houſe, and is as impatient to divulge it as another would be to get out of the Way of Danger. He cannot beſtow the leaſt Attention upon any Thing that is ſaid in Company, while undiveſted of the Cauſe that brought him into it. His Perplexity is as great, till after this Scene is over, as a Firſt Miniſter of State upon the Eve of a critical or dangerous Enterprize; while others are enjoying themſelves in innocent Mirth and Feſtivity, he alone is incapable of joining with them, or of experiencing the ſame Senſations, by Reaſon of the Embarraſſment of his Mind, and the Calumny that is hatching in it.

A Man of this Stamp always puts me in Mind of Momus, the Heathen Satyriſt, giving his Opinion of two of the moſt noble and uſeful Things in Nature, a Man, and a Houſe.—The firſt he allowed a very curious Contrivance, but wholly defective on Account of his not having a Window in his Breaſt, by which might be diſcovered his ſecret Thoughts and Intentions; and the other he objected to, by Reaſon of its being a Fixture, and in Caſe of being placed in a bad Neighbourhood, could not immediately be removed out of it. Thus, I ſuppoſe, had theſe who propoſed theſe Queſtions to him, gone through the whole Arcana of Nature, he would have found ſome Fault or other, with every Thing in it.

Trite as this Fable is, it is nevertheleſs as true a Picture of a Slanderer as ever was drawn, ſince it is one of the chief Qualities of this Paſſion, to find out the Flaws, and diſregard the Perfections in every new Art or Invention.

And it is no leſs curious to obſerve the various Ways this Paſſion takes to diſplay itſelf, according to the different Tempers of Mankind: In ſome it is ſhewn in a loud ſonorous Voice, in others, in a Whiſper, and not a few take a more ſilent Method than both theſe, and make a Nod of the Head, or a Wink of the Eye, the Means of conveying their Opinions to others. The firſt are generally thoſe, who ſpeak of all Matters ſo as that all the World may hear them; the others commonly exact a Promiſe of Secrecy from you, but if you mention it, by no Means to inſinuate that they know any Thing of the Matter.——It requires no great Degree of Penetration to determine which is the moſt deſpicable Character of theſe two; they are both vile and contemptible, and very much beneath the Practice of a Gentleman.

There are others again, that add Inſult to Lies, and are not contented to ruin the Reputation alone, but try every Method to injure the Body. Such as theſe are too mean and inſignificant for Cenſure, ſince they muſt either be too hardened in theſe vile Practices to repent by Reproof, or too ignorant to comprehend the true Meaning of it.

PLAIN DEALER.

New Advertiſements.

The SUBSCRIBER WANTS Ten Thouſand Buſhels OF Clean, dry SHELLS,

And will contract with any Perſon for that Quantity, or any Part thereof, to be delivered any Time before the Laſt of September.

HE has now, he thanks God, an Opportunity to acquaint the Gentlemen in the landed and trading Intereſt, That the WHOLE FRONT of his WHARF on the River (full Eight Hundred and Forty Feet) is ſo far finiſhed, as to be fit for Buſineſs from one End to the other;—Two Ships having been entirely loaded this Crop at the Northernmoſt End thereof. That even in its preſent Situation, his Wharf is not exceeded (if equalled) by any in North-America, for Conveniency, either to the Planter or Merchant.—No Dock in Town ſafer for the Coaſters than his.—No Stores, not even Barns, more ſecure from Fire.

He has now Stores that will contain near Ten Thouſand Barrels of Rice, and the Planter who will land his Crop of Rice at his Wharf, may depend, that neither he nor his Factor ſhall ever be under the Neceſſity of ſelling any Part of it contrary to his own Judgment, if he does not like the Going Price (either for Want of Storage, or Porters to bore it on any ſudden Change of Weather) as has frequently been the Caſe.

He ſhall never forget the Obligations he is under to ſeveral planting Gentlemen, who ſo generouſly introduced his Wharf into Buſineſs, and have eſtabliſhed it therein—not only contrary to the Opinion, but againſt the united ungenerous Oppoſition of great Numbers.—And he flatters himſelf, if it pleaſes God to enable him to finiſh his Works, which he hopes will be done in a very little more Time, that they will be of general Utility to the Public.

In ſhort, the Planter who uſes his Wharf, may be aſſured, That he will not ſuffer himſelf to be influenced or intimidated, from reſerving for him, every Chance in his Power, to diſpoſe of his Crop to the beſt Advantage. And the Gentlemen in Trade may depend, that he will make it his Study to give their Veſſels all poſſible Diſpatch; and he can aſſure them, that already more than Thirty Thouſand Barrels of Rice have been ſhipped off at his Wharf, which he knows has not coſt the Shippers for Porterage TEN POUNDS Currency ALTOGETHER.——That the Front of his Wharf is ſo ſoon dry, after the heavieſt Rains, that the Weather muſt be extreme bad indeed, if a Day, or even an Hour, is at any Time loſt in diſpatching a Veſſel at any Part of it:—And that ſuch Gentlemen as tranſact the Bulk of their Buſineſs thereat, ſhall never want for any Quantity of Storage, either occaſionally for their Veſſels at the Wharf, or for the Cargoes of ſuch as they may expect.

March 18, 1773. HENRY MOUZON, Jun.

Mr. POWELL,

HAPPENING to pass by the Beef Market on laſt Monday Morning, and ſeeing a conſiderable Crowd of People there, my Curioſity led me to enquire into the Cauſe: And I aſſure you, I was not a little pleaſed, when informed, that, by Order of one of the Magiſtrates of this Town, ſeveral Quantities of Dry Goods had been ſeized from Negroes, who were hawking them about the Streets for Sale, and that the ſame were then diſpoſing of, by public Outcry, agreeable to an Act of the General Aſſembly of this Province. The Hawking of Dry Goods through the Streets of Charles-Town by Negroes for Sale, is a Grievance which has been long and loudly complained of, as a Practice big with many and very great Evils: And therefore, it is the ſincere Wiſh of every honeſt Inhabitant, that the ſame Authority which has made this laudable Beginning, will perſevere 'till a total Stop is put to ſo very ſcandalous and detrimental a Proceeding.

AMICUS PATRIÆ.

NORTH-CAROLINA.

THE General Aſſembly of this Province having met at Newbern, according to Summons, and the Law for eſtabliſhing Circuit Courts being near expiring, they proceeded to frame a Law for amending and continuing the old One, reſerving to the Inhabitants of the Province the Privilege of attaching the Effects of Foreigners, as heretofore had and held; when his Excellency the Governor was pleaſed to communicate his Majeſty's Inſtruction to the Houſe of Aſſembly, prohibiting the ſuing out Attachments againſt Perſons who had not been Reſidents in this Province, which gave Occaſion to the following MESSAGES and RESOLVES:

MESSAGE of the COUNCIL to the ASSEMBLY.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

UPON reading the third Time, the Bill continuing an Act for dividing this Province into Six ſeveral Diſtricts, &c. we obſerve, that you have dele'd the following Clauſe, viz.

"And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, that, for the future, the Eſtate of no Perſon whatſoever, who hath never reſided in this Province, ſhall be liable to an Attachment, otherwiſe than according to the Laws and Statutes of England in like Caſes, and that every Clauſe and Section in the before recited Act contrary thereto, ſhall be henceforth repealed."

We apprehend this Clauſe is ſo penned, as to give to the People of this Province every Benefit enjoyed by the People of England by the Method of Attachments; what that Benefit is, or how far reſtrained, will be left at large to the Conſtruction of the Courts of Law. For theſe Reaſons, and becauſe without this Clauſe, the Province is like to be without any Courts of Juſtice, we do not conſent to part with it.

If your Houſe agree to this Alteration, we conceive that the other Clauſe reſpecting the Twelve Months Continuance may be dele'd.

We farther propoſe to empower the Chief-Juſtice and his Aſſociates, or either of them, to open the Court of Saliſbury on any of the firſt Six Days of the next ſucceeding Term.

If your Houſe agree to theſe Alterations, be pleaſed to ſend two of your Members to ſee the ſame made.

In the Upper Houſe, March 1ſt, 1773.

MESSAGE of the ASSEMBLY to the COUNCIL.

Gentlemen of his Majeſty's Honourable Council,

IN anſwer to your MESSAGE of the Firſt Inſtant, upon your reading in your Houſe, for the third Time, the Bill continuing an Act for dividing this Province into Six ſeveral Diſtricts, this Houſe agree to the Amendment by you propoſed, with Reſpect to empowering the Chief Juſtice and his Aſſociates, or either of them, to open the Court of Saliſbury on any of the firſt Six Days of the next ſucceeding Term.

But we can by no Means admit the Clauſe, which you inſerted upon a former Reading, and which, upon the moſt mature Deliberation, has been dele'd in our Houſe, to wit; "And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, that for the future, the Eſtate of no Perſon whatſoever, who hath never reſided in this Province, ſhall be liable to an Attachment, otherwiſe than according to the Laws of England in the like Caſes, and that every Clauſe and Section of the before recited Act contrary thereunto, ſhall be henceforth repealed."

We are of Opinion, that it would be highly inconſiſtent with the commercial Policy of this Province, to relinquiſh the Benefit of the Attachment of the Effects of thoſe, who are not Reſident here, as from the Abſence of their Perſons, Creditors have no Security but what is derived from their Property in this Province, upon the Faith of which thoſe Debtors have, in many Inſtances, obtained Credit.

We conceive that the Privilege we claim is exerciſed by many, if not all, of our Siſter Colonies, varied agreeable to the Circumſtances of each particular Place, and regulated by Provincial Laws, and in ſome Inſtances by the municipal Cuſtoms in certain Liberties and Franchiſes of Great-Britain; and as we can diſcover nothing in our own Conſtitution that can vindicate a Diſtinction ſo injurious to this Country, we cannot, in Juſtice to ourſelves and Conſtituents, aſſent to it. We notice that the Clauſe propoſed by you is not confined to the Inhabitants of Great-Britain, but extends its Influence to Perſons Reſident in the other Colonies, whoſe Effects are thereby guarded from Attachments for any Debts they owe us, while ours may at any Time be made the Subject of Attachments at their Suits, for any Debts we may have contracted with them.

It is the Senſe of this Houſe, that by the Laws and Statutes of Great-Britain, no Proviſion whatſoever is made for Attachments; and ſo far as they are known in Great-Britain, they exiſt by municipal Cuſtoms, are confined to Liberties and Franchiſes governed by particular Circumſtances of Place and People, and ſo eſſentially local in the Application of them, as not to admit of being extended by any Analogy to this Province; and as we muſt be referred, in Caſe of your Amendment taking Place, to the Laws and Statutes of Great-Britain for our Remedy by Attachment, ſuch Application muſt, from what we have obſerved, be altogether nugatory and fruitleſs.

We doubt not, but that Judges of our Courts of Law, zealous for the Welfare of this Province, would give a liberal Conſtruction to the Clauſe propoſed; but by the Laws in Force muſt their Deciſions be confined; and fettered with this Reſtriction, we think no legal juſt Interpretation could be formed, but what muſt operate as a Denial of the Benefit we ſeek from the Attachment Law; to ſecure a Privilege ſo important, the Mode of obtaining it ſhould be grounded in Certainty, the Law poſitive and expreſs, and nothing left for the Exertion of Doubt and Diſcretion.

We mention, as a Circumſtance that cannot have eſcaped the Notice of your Houſe, that the Law is to continue only Six Months, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Aſſembly; that in the Manner this Houſe have paſſed it, it is incumbent on the Creditor to give his former Debtor Twelve Months Notice before he can bind his Effects by a Judgment; ſo that it is left altogether to Government to prevent this Law having any Effect whatſoever with Reſpect to foreign Debtors, by putting an End to its Operation before Twelve Months, or, which muſt neceſſarily be the Caſe, a longer Term expire.

This Houſe bear the fulleſt Teſtimony to the Neceſſity of Courts of Law; and the many Diſadvantages which muſt ariſe from a Failure of the due Diſtribution of Juſtice in the Criminal and Civil Side are too obvious to be mentioned. They doubt not but your Houſe equally feel for the Honour and Intereſt of this Province, and conſcious of the Benefits that have been derived to us from the Right we have hitherto had of attaching the Effects of Foreigners, that you will not part with a Proviſion grounded in the Principles of mutual, reciprocal Juſtice, the Privation of which muſt neceſſarily deſtroy that Confidence and Credit to Foreigners and our Neighbour Coloniſts, upon which the Trade and Proſperity of this Province eſſentially depend.

JOHN HARVEY, Speaker.

In the Aſſembly, the 2d of March, 1773.

In the ASSEMBLY the 6th of March, 1773.

ON Motion, Reſolved Nem. Con. That the Right of Attachment of the Effects of Foreigners, has been long exerciſed by the Inhabitants of this Province, in common with other Provinces in America, and ſeveral trading Cities, Liberties and Franchiſes of Great-Britain; that it has been found greatly beneficial to the Trade and Commerce of this Country, and the Security of the Property of Individuals; and that this Houſe cannot, by any Public Act of theirs, relinquiſh that Right, without, at the ſame Time, abandoning the Intereſts of their Conſtituents, and the Peace and Happineſs of this Colony.

JOHN HARVEY, Speaker.

In the ASSEMBLY the 6th Day of March, 1773.

ON Motion, Reſolved Nem. Con. In Conſequence of an Inſtruction communicated to this Houſe by his Excellency the Governor, relative to the Attachment of the Effects of Foreigners, that a Reſolve entered this Day upon the Journal of this Houſe, reſpecting that Subject, and alſo the ſeveral Meſſages which have paſſed between this Houſe and the Honourable Council thereupon, be publiſhed in all the Gazettes of this Province, Virginia and South-Carolina, and that the Clerk of this Houſe ſee this Reſolve put in Execution.

Laſt Monday died, in the 85th Year of his Age, much regretted by his Friends, the Hon. OTHNIEL BEALE, Preſident of His Majeſty's Council; at which Board he had a Seat for upwards of ſeventeen Years paſt. He was born at Marblehead in New-England, and had his Reſidence here upwards of Fifty-two Years; during which Period, he ſerved his Country, with Reputation, in many public Stations, was an uſeful Member of the Community, and acquired a very conſiderable Fortune.——For other Particulars ſee the General Gazette of laſt Friday.

On Monday laſt, ſeveral Parcels of Dry Goods, ſeized from Negro Slaves, who had hawked them about the Streets of Charles-Town for Sale, were ſold by Order of a Magiſtrate at the Beef-Market, being forfeited by the Terms of an Act of Aſſembly of this Province, which prohibits the Sale of any Dry Goods by Negro Slaves in Charles-Town, and only permits the Diſpoſal of Fruit, and ſuch Articles of Proviſions as are therein ſpecified, and thoſe by ſuch Licence or Ticket, as is therein particularly ſet forth. There are now 72,308 Tierces of Rice ſhipped, from this Port alone, ſince the Firſt of November laſt. We have not yet learnt, what has been cleared, from the Ports of George-Town and Beaufort, in the ſame Time. Nor can we at preſent aſcertain, what the Amount of the Crop may be, the Planters in general, having never before been ſo much deceived as this Year, on beating out; many having fallen ſhort of what they computed they had in their Barns, by One-Quarter, One-Third, and even One-Half, which is one Reaſon why ſeveral Factors demand more than 60*ſ.* per Hundred Pounds.

Quantity of laſt Year's Crop of Indico, ſhipped from this Port only, ſince the 1ſt of November laſt, 742,295 Pounds.

ADMITTANCE for each Person TWENTY SHILLINGS.

That Wonderful, Surprising, Unparalleled

NATURAL CURIOSITY,

CONSISTING of Twelve surprising PICTURES, which were the genuine Productions of Nature in the Walnut-Tree. This Curiosity was sawed accidentally out of the large Spur Root of the Tree, in the City of Hereford in England, as the Sawyers were ordered to saw the Root of the Tree into thin Boards, every Board that came from the Saw had the true Picture or the Portrait of Men's Busts in Profile, as large as the Life, and every Feature in just Proportion, with a perfect Representation of the Hair on the Heads and Beards, differing in their Likeness from Youth to old Age; requiring no co-operating Fancy, but striking powerfully and at once, in the same Manner that other Pictures do.

The Proprietor has had the Honour of shewing them to His Majesty King GEORGE III. and the Rest of the Royal Family, as may be seen by a Certificate granted at the Palace of Kew. He has likewise had the Honour of shewing them at the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and to most of the Nobility in the Kingdom, who gave them great Applause; and, since they arrived here, has had the Honour of shewing them to his Excellency the Governor, his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, their Ladies, and many other Ladies and Gentlemen of Distinction, who have expressed their greatest Satisfaction.

Copy of Dr. DEMAINBRAY'S Certificate.

"THESE are to Certify, That I had the Honour of shewing to His present Majesty, and the Rest of the Royal Family, Mr. ROBERT SHEAD'S Twelve Pictures, delineated by Nature in Wood, which are undoubtedly one of the greatest Curiosities in Natural History that can be seen, as the Lusus Naturæ in them equals the Pencil of the greatest Artist, and their Beauty is in general far superiour to what I have seen in any Museum, either in these Kingdoms or abroad. (Signed)

STEPHEN DEMAINBRAY, LL. D.
Teacher of Philosophy and of Natural History to the R. Family."

N. B. GENTLEMEN or LADIES may see them at their own Houses, by giving a Day's Notice.

 To remove any Doubts (if such have arisen) of these Pictures being done by the Hand of Nature, and that they are coloured or stained, the Proprietor, to convince the World of their being GENUINE, gives this Notice,—That any Person may try upon them all Arts that can be found, to take out Stains.——The Proprietor gave the same Notice for Five Years in London.

☞ The above will continue to be shewn in Charles-Town 14 Days from this Time, and no longer.

WILLIAM MAXWELL.

To the CURIOUS.

Just arrived from LONDON,

And to be seen at JAMES SNEAD'S, Turner, in MEETING-STREET, from Nine in the Morning till Six in the Evening.

ADMITTANCE for each Perſon TWENTY SHILLINGS.

That Wonderful, Surpriſing, Unparalleled

NATURAL CURIOSITY,

CONSISTING of Twelve ſurpriſing PICTURES, which were the genuine Productions of Nature in Walnut-Tree. This Curioſity was ſawed accidentally out of the large Spur Root of the Tree, in the City of Hereford in England, as the Sawyers were ordered to ſaw the Root of the Tree into thin Boards, every Board that came from the Saw had the true Picture or the Portrait of Men's Buſts in Profile, as large as the Life, and every Feature in juſt Proportion, with a perfect Repreſentation of the Hair on the Heads and Beards, differing in their Likeneſs from Youth to old Age; requiring no co-operating Fancy, but ſtriking powerfully and at once, in the ſame Manner that other Pictures do.

The Proprietor has had the Honour of ſhewing them to His Majeſty King GEORGE III. and the Reſt of the Royal Family, as may be ſeen by a Certificate granted at the Palace of Kew. He has likewiſe had the Honour of ſhewing them at the Univerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, and to moſt of the Nobility in the Kingdom, who gave them great Applauſe; and, ſince they arrived here, has had the Honour of ſhewing them to his Excellency the Governor, his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, their Ladies, and many other Ladies and Gentlemen of Diſtinction, who have expreſſed their greateſt Satisfaction.

Copy of Dr. DEMAINBRAY'S Certificate.

"THESE are to Certify, That I had the Honour of ſhewing to His preſent Majeſty, and the Reſt of the Royal Family, Mr. ROBERT SNEAD'S Twelve Pictures, delineated by Nature in Wood, which are undoubtedly one of the greateſt Curioſities in Natural Hiſtory that can be ſeen, as the Luſus Naturæ in them equals the Pencil of the greateſt Artiſt, and their Beauty is in general far ſuperiour to what I have ſeen in any Muſeum, either in theſe Kingdoms or abroad. (Signed)

STEPHEN DEMAINBRAY, LL. D.
Teacher of Philoſophy and of Natural Hiſtory to the R. Family."

N. B. GENTLEMEN or LADIES may ſee them at their own Houſes, by giving a Day's Notice.

 To remove any Doubts (if ſuch have ariſen) of theſe Pictures being done by the Hand of Nature, and that they are coloured or ſtained, the Proprietor, to convince the World of their being GENUINE, gives this Notice,—That any Perſon may try upon them all Arts that can be found, to take out Stains.——The Proprietor gave the ſame Notice for Five Years in London.

☞ The above will continue to be ſhewn in Charles-Town 14 Days from this Time, and no longer.
